

Mrs. Thomas Erwin Long ... Marriage Announced

Long-Maltby Nuptials Are Read in Garden Rite July 28

The gardens and patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Long, 1222 Dafe Ave., were beautifully decorated in pink and white chrysanthemums and gladioli for the evening wedding ceremony, Saturday, July 28, when their son, Thomas Erwin, claimed as his bride, Norma Jean Maltby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. McMahan, of Los Angeles.

Baskets of pink and white flowers marked the place of ceremony against a wall decorated with shells containing

MRS. RONALD E. PELLETT ... Attractive Bride

Barbara Thomas Married To Ronald Pellett at St. James

St. James Catholic Church was the scene of the 2 o'clock afternoon nuptial ceremony when Miss Barbara Mary Thomas became the bride of Ronald Eugene Pellett on Tuesday, July 28.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas of 1000 Fiat St., Torrance, was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage.

The bride is a graduate of Pasco High School, Pasco, Wash. Her bridegroom, who is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Pellett of Pleasanton, Kan., is a graduate of Pleasanton High School and El Camino College and will enter the University of California at Berkeley in September, where the bridal couple will establish a home.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Richard Foster and ushers were brothers of the bride, Nick, Joseph and Bernard Thomas. Another brother, John Thomas, served as acolyte to Father McKenna, who officiated at the nuptial ceremony.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Neptunian Club in Manhattan Beach. Mrs. Marvin Hoffman,

Mrs. Posner Entertains

A pink and blue scheme and a stork motif were used in decorating last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. A. L. Posner entertained her bridge club at her home, 1728 Fern Ave.

The clever decoration was chosen to honor Mrs. William Garrity who was presented with a gift from the club.

After the serving of the luncheon, bridge was played with Mrs. Garrity holding the high score.

Others attending the party were Mmes. Dean Sears, John Steinbaugh, W. C. Boswell, Mel Millar, Paul Loranger, and M. A. Bauman.

On Monday evening of this week, Mrs. Posner entertained another bridge club. She served refreshments at the close of the games.

Monday guests were Mmes. Warren Hamilton, R. R. Dexter, Lloyd Jones, James Shidler, Irene Smith, James Crockett, Tony Barratta, and Mrs. Alice Robinson of Whittier, who was an overnight guest at the Posner home.

Mrs. Loranger will be hostess to the club at its next meeting.

Mewborns Are Club Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Mewborn entertained with a turkey barbecue Saturday evening at their home, 5321 Reese Rd., for members of Mrs. Mewborn's bridge club and their husbands.

Those who gathered in the patio for the enjoyable affair were Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Buxton, Pierce Venable, Paul Roettger, Leonard Doyle, Davie Hurford, Robert Wilson, Bud Powell, Sam Drumright and Alex Hunt.

AT CRESTLINE

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tolson and children spent the past week at Crestline at the Fred Bever cabin.

Bride Wears French Organdy For Wedding to Dennis Coil

Miss Carolyn Pennington was exquisitely gowned in white embroidered French organdy over taffeta for her marriage to Dennis W. Coil, which took place at 4 p.m., on July 28, in the Calvary Baptist Church of Gardena. Completing the bridal costume was a finger tip veil that cascaded from a lace crown.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and stephanotis and a lace handkerchief carried by her mother at her wedding 22 years ago. She was given in marriage by her father.

The new Mrs. Coil is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Pennington of 18809 Casimir Ave., Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of
